

DEDICATION

Mrs. Dorothy Lee Carr

A cheerful smile, a genuine interest in youth, and a sincere Christian witness for her Lord are perhaps three of the most marked characteristics which aptly fit Mrs. Dorothy Carr. She has willingly given so much to others in so many ways----as a helpful wife to her husband who has been both minister and professor, as a mother, as a youth counselor, and instructor at Manhattan Bible College. We are thankful for all of these ways Mrs. Carr has given of herself. We realize opportunities to serve in these various ways came because she dedicated her life totally to her Lord. God, shining through her, gave us a Christian friend, who by her example encourages us to walk more closely with Him.

SPECIAL STUDENTS

Every College has its special students. Pictured here are students that did not take the number of required hours to be classified as a full-time student. Even though they were classified as special students because of hours, they were also special because of their contribution to the student body. They are as follows:

Lukens, Scott and Truax were also students at Kansas State University.

A venture in Faith was realized at the beginning of the 1964-65 school term. A new Residential Hall for men and women was ready for 42 men, 38 women, and two supervisors.

The structure is the equivalent of two buildings set end to end under the same roof. Each is a complete dormitory unit in itself, having its own house mother's quarters, reception parlor, recreation room, and laundry facility. The structure is arranged so that it can be converted into single unit housing for 86 students and their housemother at anytime.

CHAPEL

M B C is most fortunate to have many outstanding Chapel speakers during the year. Among those to speak to students, faculty, and guests (6) were: (1) Alumnus Charles Cook, minister to the Town and Country Christian Church, Wichita, Kansas. Mr. Cook is also a member of the board of trustees and was the MBC DAY speaker for '64. (2) President B. E. Junkins (left) of Midwest Christian College spoke in the early Spring to faculty and students. With him is President W. F. Lown. (3) Mr. Lawrence Hallum of the Cookson Hill Christian School was on campus for "Missionary Week". He is shown here with Mrs. Charles Gresham, a faculty wife. (4) Dr. Donn Leech (right) of Lincoln Christian Seminary talks with graduating senior Rex Miller after Chapel. (5) Marshall Leggett (2nd right) Vice-President of the NACC, is receiving the first NACC registration of MBC from Student Council President Edgar Elliston. Dean Edwards (left) and President Lown (right) participated in the NACC program this year.
